

A Quote from Ijeoma Samuels

Assistant Director, Turner & Townsend

Dominique is someone who actively listens to the needs of the client and proactively responds with effective solutions. She has the ability to manage various stakeholders as well as multiple projects. If you need someone to engage and drive value through the supply chain then look no further. Dominique can be relied upon to turn around a deliverable with limited information and within tight deadlines. Every project needs a Dominique in their leadership team.

28th April 2020